

Adrienne Watson

Adrienne's 4+ years on Fox 5 NY prompted chef Rachael Ray to cook up these words: "Adrienne is the best thing to happen to New York mornings in a long time... and boy does she keep things moving!" From the other side (no pun intended) John Edward comments: "My greatest prediction, you'll love Adrienne Watson." Still not convinced? Then talk to Dr. Wayne Dyer, who affirms that "Adrienne is a natural star."

Adrienne's radio and television experience includes work on Fox 5, CBS 2, and Newschannel 4 (WNBC), New York. New York radio experience includes work on WFAN (currently with Mike and the Maddog), Z-100, Q-104, WKTU, WCBS, and WABC.

Hosting and emcee experience: Martina McBride, Brooks and Dunn Concert, live broadcasts from Disney Cruise Ships, live shows from Opryland, St. Jude's Radiothon, Reach for the Stars Talent Competition and Special Olympics.

Voice overs and industrials include work for Pfizer, Merck, American Society of Travel Agents, Mexico Ministry of Tourism, Centers for Disease Control, American Academy of Neurology, Life and Health Insurance Foundation.

Can work with Teleprompter and off the cuff. Fluent in English, fairly fluent in French, not fluent at all in German, but gives good pronunciation.

Highly qualified in sarcasm. Goes from "curly" to "straight" in the flash of a curling iron. Works well with animals, as well as humans.
