

PHOEBE TYERS

PHOEBE TYERS is an actor, comedian, writer and podcaster based in New York City. She plays the recurring character, April, on all five seasons of Search Party originally on TBS, now on HBO Max. She stars in Comedy Central's I, Curling and had a supporting role in the feature film Fort Tilden. You can currently see Phoebe performing her own original characters at UCB east with Characters Welcome as well as improv at the Magnet Theater with weekend team the Friday Night Show and the long running house ensemble The Music Industry.

She is a recurring voice actress with The Truth Podcast featured on NPR/All things Considered and Snap Judgment and she is a Story Pirate. Phoebe co-hosts The Unbelievable Podcast a weekly "strange stories" comedy podcast where "you learn to unlearn everything you know!" Phoebe got her BA at New School University in playwriting and directing.

She has written and directed several large ensembles at Magnet as well as her one-act plays at the La Mama theater and Theatre Row. You can see Phoebe perform every third Monday of every month at UCBeast and every Thursday and Friday at the Magnet.