

DEANNE SMITH

DeAnne Smith, a Canadian Comedy Award winner, has performed at Just for Laughs, JFL42, the Winnipeg Comedy Festival, Melbourne International Comedy Festival, the New Zealand International Comedy Festival, Edinburgh Fringe Festival, and the Iceland Comedy Festival to name a few. She's also been on TV all over the darn world, including on Last Comic Standing and The Late Late Show in the U.S., as well as in Canada, Australia and the UK. Her video "Straight Men, Step Your Game Up" has over 46 million views. She is currently developing a sitcom for CBC and her Netflix half-hour comedy special will debut in 2019. Melbourne's The Music calls her stand up "a virtuoso display of smart, slick, silly brilliance — a metaphorical (and literal) mic-drop of a show," giving it five stars, while the UK's Chortle calls Smith "always relevant, but never reverent. The UK Telegraph says she's "Smart. Very funny. Effortless charm lets her get away with murder." She's never actually murdered anyone.
