He recently Directed the Award-Winning Rock Video "Cold Cold Coffin" (Original Song by Dennis Dunaway, by Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Inductee and founding member of The Alice Cooper Group).

Currently he is working on a music video for Blue Coupe, consisting of Dennis Dunaway, Joe Bouchard, and Albert Bouchard of Blue Oyster Cult.

Brian's comedic talent is a blend of dark, intelligent, and dry humor. His quick wit combined with physical comedy on stage has delighted audiences of every age. He has performed at comedy clubs all over the country.

Brian is not only a comedian and actor, but he is also a private acting coach, and has taught acting and directing at both Rider University and Montclair State College. Brian has directed numerous stage productions and helped develop the plays of many emerging playwrights.

Growing up small around a lot of bigger, tougher guys in Trenton, NJ (a town he describes as "Good Times" meets "The Sopranos"), Brian developed a sharp wit to deal with the fact that his dancing skills did not match their fighting skills. After a stellar career managing a deli in the Kingsbury Projects, Brian realized education might be important. While working on his bachelor's and master's degrees, he began appearing in musicals (not helpful in a fight), independent films, commercials for Chase Bank and Sega Video Games, as well as the comedy pilot Crash Life and the Web Series Celebrities.
