

JODIE EVANS

Jodie is a native Brit, who does love a spot of tea from time to time. She has a love for interior design and 80's rock music. Jodie often spends her down time playing video games with her new hubby, throwing the ball repeatedly for her shepherd mix, Lady, and trying to coax her barely-home cat, Pablo, into spending time with her.

She and her hubby are in a 90's rock, cover band which is always fun and when she is not on a contract performance, they play all over Manhattan, Long Island, Staten Island, New Jersey, and Boston!

Performing is her jam!
