

Kirsten Rossotti

Kirsten Rossotti is a New York City-based actress who comes from the world of journalism.

She is a former tv reporter who has covered stories at stations all across the country including New York, Kansas, and Maine.

She spent most of her career at News 12 in Westchester, New York, where she covered both news and sports.

She is a former college basketball player who scored over 2000 points.

Kirsten is a writer, voice-over artist, and video producer and has spent time behind the camera at stations in Philadelphia and Chicago.

She also loves to play the piano and has done acting and improv training at the Barrow School of Acting and Magnet Theater.